SUBJECT: Revision of ADS Chapters 200-203

PPC is pleased to announce formally that ADS Chapters 200, 201, 202, and 203 have been revised and are effective as of March 23, 2004. This revision is a "light" update, which addresses only the most urgently required modifications. A major revision is expected in the coming months after a business model review of the strategic planning process. The major changes made to chapters in this revision are summarized in Attachment 1.

If you are interested in learning more about the revised ADS 200 series, we encourage you to sign up for the Planning, Achieving, and Learning (PAL) course at the M/HR Learning Support Division web site, <http://inside.usaid.gov/M/HR/lsd/pal.html>.

Your comments are essential for a successful review of the strategic planning processes of the Agency's business model. You are invited to participate in discussion of strategic planning sponsored by the Strategic Planning Community of Practice at its web site, <http://knowledge.usaid.gov/strategyCoP.html>.

The revised chapters are attached:

Attachment 1: Significant Changes Incorporated into the March
2004 Edition of the ADS 200 Series

Attachment 2: ADS 200 - Introduction to Programming Policy

Attachment 3: ADS 201 - Planning

Attachment 4: ADS 202 - Achieving

Attachment 5: ADS 203 - Assessing and Learning
